"Honesty is the best policy." but it doesn't seem to "go" with the State dispensary officials.

The dispensary continues to furnish "copy" for the newspaper men, and the editorial writer is never at a loss.

What has Mr. Ontz done? It appears to us at this distance that his removal was entirely unjustifiable. He promises a statement, which we await with interest.

The Anderson plan for the treatment of rapists beats lynching, and is one that should be followed in all cases. A few operations of this kind will do more to stop the crime of rape than a hundred lynchings.

Those Darlington brutes are to have a trial! The victim of their heinous crime will have to appear in open court to tell the horrifying story in all of its revolting details! The sturdy manhood of Darlington county should never allow the case to be tried. The scoundrels should be hung immediately. If there ever was a case where lynching would be justifiable, this is the case.

No doubt the legislature will again tackle the dispensary problem, at its coming session. What changes that body will make it is impossible to forecast, but the best thing to do is to abolish the State dispensary and State board of control, placing the entire management in the hands of the county boards. Until this is done there will be the same wrangling, dissensions, and suspicion of corruption that have existed since the system was first established.

Another railroad is a necessity for Bamberg, but it will never be built unless our people show some interest in the matter. Our people want another road, but so many of them seem to be afraid that it will cost them something to get it, that nothing is done. We believe there is about one hundred thousand dollars in business done here by our one railroad each year, and it seems to us that another road would be a paying investment for the stockholders.

If we can't get the Seaboard Air Line to build their through line by Bamberg, we can at least get them to build a branch from here to their through line at its nearest point, which will be about fourteen miles. But we are not going to get it unless we work for it. Nothing comes without work, and if we expect to help the town, the people must go to work for it. A little systematic effort on the part of our citizens could get the road. The matter rests with them. What will they do?

We have no ill will against Mr. Donthit, and would be glad to see him vindicated of the serious charges made and seemingly proven by the members of the State board. However, the case looks pretty black for him, and he will, we believe, have a rough and rocky travel when he attempts to explain why he was so much interested in the sale of a certain brand of whiskey. "To a man up a tree" it looks mighty like there might be some "rebates" around somewhere. But then ain't it a sort of grab game with the whole crowd?

From all indications, next year will be one of the liveliest in State politics we have known for some time. There will be a multiplicity of candidates, many of them strong men, and an exciting campaign may be expected. The issues of the campaign have not yet developed, however, but the woods are full of fellows who want to succeed the present incumbents. We also look for a rare old time in county affairs, as you can hear of probable candidates in every direction already. It is safe to say that no county office will go begging, and every office holder will have plenty of opposition. Let 'er roll. The more the merrier.

Working Night and Day
The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globe of health, that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain fog into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by Thomas Black and Bamberg Pharmacy.

TRIALS OF A WOMAN EDITOR.

Houston Post Describes Her Despair When Abused in a Newspaper Controversy.

The beautiful young girl who had graduated only a year before with the highest honors, rushes into the family sitting room, and flung herself, with a storm of sobs, upon the sofa.
"What is it, my dear?" asked her father, soothing her gently. "Has anything happened to discourage you?"
"Papa," said the maiden, raising her tear-stained face, "I am done with journalism forever. When you allowed me to purchase that weekly newspaper I thought no occupation on earth could be so noble, so elevating and powerful to scatter good and wisdom throughout the world. When I began editing the paper, everything appeared bright and rose-colored."

"My editorials were praised by the entire State press, and I got flattering words of encouragement from the large dailies. I was, oh, so proud of the fact that, although a woman, I had been admitted as an equal member of the great 'brotherhood' that exercises such influence upon the minds and morals of the people. Last week I wrote a gentle criticism of an article that appeared in a little weekly of another county. This, papa—this is what I find in the next issue of that horrid paper."

The lovely girl handed her father the paper and buried her head upon the sofa pillow while he read the following:
"We would say to the loathsome, knock-kneed, piebald jabberwork that infests the editorial dugout of the Weekly Herald, keep your shirt on. The disgusting idiotic drivel that emanates from the clapper-jawed, squirrel-headed, slab-sided, puddle-duck that spoils paper for that sewer pipe of journalism should get a pair of buckskin, kickproof pants, or else quit squirting such jobs of backhanded, putrified slime at decent papers. If the hump-backed, putty-faced vermin referred to doesn't like our remarks, we will call any day and scatter a few locks of hair and brass buttons around said Herald office, or forfeit a year's subscription."

"Papa," said the girl graduate, in a low but decided voice, "I want you to buy me a cook book and some long aprons. I am going to stay at home and help mother about the house."

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local application as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's catarrh cure. Send for circulars, free.

Hall's family pills are the best.

Rough on a Reporter.

The late Sir John Macdonald once gave orders to the leading Ottawa paper that his speeches were always to be reported verbatim, as he prided himself on a perfection of his extemporaneous style. But on one occasion, when he spoke after dining generously, the reporter's notes turned out so incoherent that the editor took fright and sent the young man to get Sir John's own revision of remarks. That statesman gravely corrected the reporter's literal transcript of what he had said and, as gravely said to him on taking leave: "Young man, let me give you a piece of advice, of which I fear you stand in need. Never touch liquor."

BRAVE MEN FALL

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, back ache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at Thomas Black's and Bamberg Pharmacy. Every bottle guaranteed.

Pay Your Debts.

The Darlington Messenger says: "The excellent price which the farmer is getting for cotton this year imposes a duty on him which he cannot evade or put aside. That is to pay his debts before doing anything else. The merchant, the doctor, and even the newspaper man have been lenient and it is due to them to cancel their obligations first. The honest man will do this, and we believe that seven cents cotton will develop a large number of honest men. Most men are honest if they have the wherewith. It is the lack of it that frequently makes them otherwise."

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on Thomas Black and Bamberg Pharmacy, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

Treasurer Free's Shortage

There seems to be another end of the Free shortage than that heretofore recognized as the main feature of the trouble, as will be seen from the following extracts from the minutes of the last meeting of the sinking fund commission:

At a called meeting of the commissioners of the sinking fund held October 3, 1899, it was ordered that the field agent of the board, Mr. N. W. Brooker, be directed, without delay, to personally or by mail call upon the bondsmen and make demand of them to pay as bondsmen of the said A. F. Free, (deceased,) county treasurer of Barnwell, the actual shortages which he, (N. W. Brooker,) as agent of the sinking fund commission, has discovered against said A. F. Free, ex-county treasurer, according to the several years of the suretyship of said bondsmen.

Ordered, further, that the said N. W. Brooker, field agent for the board confer with all the said bondsmen of said County Treasurer A. F. Free, deceased, and invite them to appoint an expert to represent them, (the said bondsmen,) and with Mr. N. W. Brooker to go over each item that Mr. Brooker has charged against Mr. A. F. Free, ex-county treasurer upon the records of the officers at the Court House in Barnwell, so that, if possible, said expert representing the bondsmen, and Mr. N. W. Brooker, field agent of the sinking fund commission, may submit to the board of commissioners of the sinking fund a statement of Mr. A. F. Free's shortages and liabilities agreed upon between Mr. Brooker, field agent, and the said bondsmen.

WHAT MR. COOPER SAYS.

Mr. Cooper said he thought that when a field agent of the board discovered an unpaid shortage existing against a county official, under Section 4 of the Act of 1898, (No. 446,) that the bondsmen of the said county official should be at once notified of the unsatisfied shortage existing against the said county official, and that the bondsmen be requested by the field agent to cause the shortage to be paid over to him after he had explained the nature and amount of the shortage to the bondsmen and had given them an opportunity to investigate. He stated that he had, therefore, given such instructions to Mr. N. W. Brooker, field agent, now investigating the shortages and irregularities of said county official.

Red Hot From The Gun

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible ulcers that no treatment helped for 20 years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Boils, Felons, Corns, Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. 25c. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by Thomas Black and Bamberg Pharmacy.

Watching for the Seaboard.

There has been very little apparent development of late in the progress of the Seaboard Air Line towards Charleston, but the community is keeping its eye on the system and the public interest in its movement has not abated.

Every since that mysterious corps of engineers was first seen in the neighborhood of Aiken and Barnwell, which proved to be the Seaboard surveyors, the public eye has been watching with close interest the movements of the Seaboard. Not only have their actions attracted the attention of the railroad and business men of Charleston, but other towns in this and other States, and even in the far North the future policy of the road is being closely watched.

Ever since the line between Augusta and Charleston was completed favorable developments have taken place, and these developments lead the people to believe that the Seaboard will make Charleston one of its Atlantic ports. However, certain circumstances may arise to prevent the coming of the Seaboard to this city or delay its entrance into Charleston.

The charter for the building of the road has been secured under the laws of this State and of Georgia, which is a strong indication that the road will get into Charleston, for when a company goes so far as to secure a charter it generally means business.

Another thing which points strongly to the Seaboard coming into Charleston is the fact that some of its attorneys have been securing options on terminal property, and from what can be learned a deal for a valuable site is about to be closed. Property owners have made the statement that they have been approached by Seaboard people for certain water front property.

Railroad officials are the most recent class in the world, which makes it extremely difficult to get at the bottom of a railroad rumor, but taking all things into consideration it looks very much like the Seaboard means business.

The corps of engineers engaged in running the line from Augusta, to Athens, Ga., is making rapid progress, having passed through Washington, Georgia.—Charleston Post.

"They are simply perfect," writes Rolfe Moore, of Lafayette, Ind., of Dr. Williams' Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for constipation and all liver ailments. Never gripe or sicken.—Bamberg Pharmacy.

THE SCHOOL OF HISTORY.

Limestone College Will Establish a Great Department of History.

The trustees of Limestone College have determined to establish a great department of history in which, without in any way neglecting other branches of the subject, particular attention will be paid to the history of the southern States. It is proposed to make Limestone College a great center of historical investigation. A large historical library is being rapidly provided, arrangements having been made to secure instruction of the highest character by men trained in university methods of original research, and the fruits of the students made both by professors and by graduate students will be published by the college in a series of historical monographs. The college proposes to build up a great department where the truth of history will be taught, where southern girls may read with reverence the record of their fathers' splendid achievements, and where the south may find before the bar of impartial reason the vindication of the doctrine of the right of self government, for which she fought the world in arms.

A beautiful hall of history will be erected for this department. The building will be a gem of architecture. The new department will be called the Winnie Davis school of history, and the new building will be named the Winnie Davis Hall of History. Limestone College desires this work to be a splendid monument to the memory of that beautiful woman whose image is enshrined in every true southern heart. The institution believes that no tribute could be devised more acceptable to the cultured mind of the daughter of the Confederacy than a great department of a great college devoted to the education of southern women.

President Lee Davis Lodge has laid a plan before Mrs. Jefferson Davis and has received from her a full endorsement of the project.

The matter will be pushed with the utmost vigor. The greatest enthusiasm has been aroused at the college. The friends of Limestone are rejoiced that their college is going to take up this great work—a work that must appeal powerfully to every true man and woman of southern blood. Every southerner will wish to see the Winnie Davis school of history, what it is certain to be, a splendid success.

New Anatomy.

The murderers have discovered some astonishingly vulnerable parts of the human anatomy of late. From a paper this morning we learn that a Georgia colonel was "shot in the ticket office; the other day a man was fatally shot 'through his door,' and not long ago another received a fatal wound 'in the window.'"—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

He kissed her passionately upon her appearance.—Jefferson Souvenir.

She whipped him upon his return.—Burlington Hawkeye.

She seated herself upon his entering.—Albion Democrat.

He kissed her back.—Atlanta Constitution.

We thought she sat down upon her being asked.—Saturday Gossip.

She faintly upon his departure.—Lynn Union.

He kicked the tramp upon his sitting down.—American Pharmacist.

We feel compelled to refer again to the poor woman who was shot in the oil regions some time ago.—Medical World.

And why not drop a tear for the man who was fatally stabbed in the rotunda, and for him who was kicked on the highway. For all the above we are indebted to the Medical Age, but it fails to mention the fact of the woman being accidentally shot in the waterworks or the man injured upon the long bridge.—Medical World.

THE ACME OF STYLE!

That's what you get in our stylish writing papers. We have all the latest shapes, shades and tints. We have paper ruled and plain, by the box, pound or quire, and these are worth making a trip to see. If its style, we have it; if its price, you'll find it here. It will pay you to come in and get posted as to what is fashionable in stationery, whether you buy or not.

Our Argument.

Suppose you were to go to a hardware store for a yard of silk. The clerk would tell you he didn't keep silk, and knew nothing about the dry goods business. The same applies to stationery. When you want stationery, by all means go to a stationery store. That's our business exclusively. We don't claim to know anything else, and it makes no difference to you whether we do know anything else or not, provided we know this well. We claim to know our business thoroughly; come in and find out whether our claim is just.
